KAYAK HEROES TEE OFF AT KOONDAH WATERS

Australian Trans-Tasman kayaking heroes, James Castrission and Justin Jones, recently visited Kooindah Waters Golf Club for a round of golf.

James and Justin stayed at Kooindah Waters Residential Golf & Spa Resort during a visit to the Central Coast to be guest speakers at the Salvation Army's Red Shield Appeal Breakfast.

Kooindah Waters Director of Golf, Mark Ingrey, said it was a pleasure to host the two sportsmen at the Club.

"James and Justin are real modern day Australian heroes and it is always great to have such interesting people visiting the course," Mr Ingrey said.

"I imagine it was somewhat easier for the boys to stroll around the Kooindah Waters layout than to battle against 10 metre waves.

"I found it no surprise that they turned down the offer of a buggy and decided to take the healthier option of walking the 18 holes," he said.

The two kayakers shot to notoriety in early 2008 after they paddled from Australia to New Zealand in a single cabin kayak. During their journey of over 3000 kilometres they faced 10 metre seas, sharks and 50 knot winds.

Kooindah Waters Residential Golf & Spa Resort is owned by Clarendon Resort Housing Pty Ltd which forms part of a division of Investa Property Group, a fully integrated property company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange.

Kooindah Waters Golf Club is managed by Troon Golf the recognised leader in prestige golf course management, development and marketing around the world. The company currently manages 190 golf courses in 32 countries including the USA, Scotland, Japan, Middle East, Mexico and the Bahamas.
