KOINDAH WATERS APPOINTS GROUP GOLF COORDINATOR

Koindah Waters Golf Club has appointed Melanie Greentree to the position of Group Golf Coordinator.

Melanie was promoted to the role of Group Golf Coordinator after working at Kooindah Waters for the past 12 months in all facets of Troon Golf operations.

In her role, Melanie will be in charge of organising social groups and corporate clients, as well as boosting rounds through operator and corporate clients.

Ms Greentree said her new role at Kooindah Waters would be both enriching and challenging.

"I am looking forward to providing the best possible service to Kooindah Waters' social and corporate group golfers, and I am also hoping to fit in the occasional 18 holes myself!" she said.

Koindah Waters Director of Golf, Brendan Currie said he was pleased to welcome Melanie into her new role.

"Corporate golf is a key part of Kooindah Waters' success, so it is essential that we have the right person for the role," Mr Currie said.

"I am confident that with Melanie's enthusiasm, drive and knowledge, corporate golfers and members of the Club will receive the best possible service," he said.

Set in Wyong on NSW's Central Coast the 18-hole par 72 championship course was designed by leading golf course architect Ross Watson and with design input from golf professional Craig Parry.

Koindah Waters Residential Golf Resort is owned by Clarendon Resort Housing Pty Ltd which forms part of a division of Investa Property Group, a fully integrated property company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange.

Koindah Waters Golf Club is managed by Troon Golf the recognised leader in prestige golf course management, development and marketing around the world. The company currently manages 185 golf courses in 22 countries including the USA, Scotland, Japan, Middle East, Mexico and the Bahamas.
