SHARE THE EXCITEMENT OF THE US MASTERS AT KOINDAH WATERS

Kooindah Waters Golf Club invites golfing enthusiasts to share the excitement of the US Masters at the Kooindah Waters US Masters Breakfast on April 9.

Guests will enjoy a banquet breakfast while they watch the final nine holes of the US Masters Tournament on the big screen at Kooindah Waters Golf Club.

After breakfast, guests will move onto the course where they will play nine holes of championship golf playing a stroke competition.

Director of Golf Brendan Currie said the event promised to be a wonderful morning of golf.

“After watching the final nine holes of the US Masters on the big screen, guests will have their chance to prove their golfing knowledge with a betting competition and golf quiz,” Mr Currie said.

“There will be some great prizes up for grabs so I encourage all those golfing nuts out there to book their spot for the breakfast now,” he said.
